

Breast Cancer Prevention and Control Policy 2017

Risk Factors Fact Sheet - Temporary Version

Are you at risk for breast cancer?

You are at higher risk if you fall into one of the following categories:

- Women older than 55
- Have a family or personal history of breast cancer
- Started menstruating before age 12
- Went through menopause after age 55
- Gave birth later in life, or not at all
- Have dense breast tissue
- Had radiation to your chest area before age 30
- Are on hormone replacement therapy (HRT)³